KINGSTONE Real Estate appoints Benedikt Gabor as chairman of the advisory board, and Martin Führlein as the board's deputy chairman

- Benedikt Gabor, head of the real estate department at Nordrheinische Ärzteversorgung, takes over the position as chairman of the advisory board from Dr. Eckart John von Freyend
- Martin Führlein, CEO of Pegasus Capital Partners, becomes deputy chairman of the advisory board

Munich, 04 March 2025 – KINGSTONE Real Estate (“KRE”), a company domiciled in Munich, is replacing the chair of its advisory board, which was formed in 2019: Benedikt Gabor, head of the real estate department at the Nordrheinische Ärzteversorgung doctors’ pension scheme, who has served as deputy chairman of the KRE Advisory Board since 2023, will take over the chairmanship from Dr. Eckart John von Freyend, who is leaving the advisory board at the end of his regular term. He is succeeded as deputy chairman by Martin Führlein, the CEO of Pegasus Capital Partners, who was appointed as new member of the advisory board. The committee assists KRE by providing consultancy and support.

In addition to his role as chairman of the committee, Benedikt Gabor remains in charge of the German institutional investors segment. Owing to his current and former positions, including as member of the advisory board of FondsForum, head of real estate and equity investments at Deutsche Rückversicherung AG and at the VöV Association of German Public Insurers, as senior portfolio manager at Catella Real Estate AG and former vice president at Deutsche Immobilien Leasing GmbH, his credentials include comprehensive know-how and an extensive network.

At the same time, KINGSTONE Real Estate recruited Martin Führlein as his deputy. Führlein brings long-term experience as capital market expert to his new position. In addition to his principal job as CEO of Pegasus Capital Partners, he also serves as member of the Supervisory Board of PSD Bank Nürnberg eG, having previously served as member of the board of GRR AG and as managing director of GRR Real Estate Management.

Dr. Tim Schomberg, founder and Managing Partners of KINGSTONE Real Estate, said: “Benedikt Gabor has been a member of our advisory board since 2019. We very much appreciate the trust-based interaction with him, especially in regard to the strategic orientation and the continued development of KINGSTONE Real Estate, and look forward to working with him as he succeeds Dr. Eckart John von Freyend as chairman of the advisory board. We are very grateful to Dr Eckart John von Freyend for his excellent cooperation over the past years. On top of that, we added an excellent and proven real estate expert to the advisory board by appointing Martin Führlein.”

Other Advisory Board members include Andreas von Buttlar, the CEO and founder of Spinone Equity, Prof. Dr. Kerstin Hennig, professor of real estate management and head of the FS Real Estate Institute at the Frankfurt School of Finance & Management, and Philipp Wehle, former member of the executive board of International Wealth Management and the CFO Global Wealth Management at Credit Suisse.
